CODE OF ETHICS FOR VOLUNTEERS
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Volunteers will maintain high standards of conduct reflecting a professional approach and positive attitude, shown by caring, cooperation, honesty and respect for others. Volunteers will not exploit volunteer relationships for personal gain. Volunteers will strive at all times to demonstrate behavior that serves as a positive, motivating example for our clients. Volunteers are expected to conduct themselves in demeanor, appearance and lifestyle as mature role models for our clients. Corporal punishment or abusive treatment (physical, emotional or sexual) will not be tolerated. Volunteers will report any need for discipline or management of clients to staff immediately and avoid physical management of clients. Boys and Girls Haven is a smoke-free campus. In the spirit of genuine concern for everyone's health and future life, especially our residents, volunteers will show good example and positive guidance to our residents regarding the value of not smoking. Please sign below if you agree to the following: I have read and understand the Volunteer Code of Ethics for Boys and Girls Haven. I agree to comply with these standards.
